The Cumberland Pencil Museum
Main Street, Keswick Cumbria
CA12 5NG

Keswick Pencil Museum will be hosting a display of Alan and Sheila Donnelly's Cedar wood Mauchline Ware from September 7th for a month. This popular Victorian souvenir ware, decorated with transfer prints of Lake District views was made from the off cuts of cedar wood left over from the production of pencils in Keswick. Cedar wood pieces on display will be available for purchase. The Mauchline Ware Collectors Club will be holding a regional meeting to coincide with the opening of the display at the museum. Members will be able to look around the museum before meeting in the workshop for an informative talk by Roger Asquith and a general discussion. A "Cumbrian Cream Tea" will be served after the talk. Members may wish to bring local pieces of Mauchline ware to show. The price for the event is £5 per person to include entrance to the museum and cream tea.
